Jill had math or Pre-Algebra first, then she went to her next class her favorite Language Arts after her class, she had lunch and went to Gym practice. When Jill was done for the day she went home to Buddy and her Father Timothy, but when she got home the blood drained from her face as her dear father lay dead on the floor.

What will Jill do in Chapter 2?

Chapter 2 by joane van Wyk

She dropped her heavy bag on the floor. Staring with fear and shock, a single tear ran down her cheek as thoughts bolt through her head like the tube she and her father used to ride. Who done this and why, she thought. Is the person a crimanal, Is the person still in the house waiting for her? Suddenly, connected back to reality, she runs to the landline and dials the police or even anyone who can help her. Suddenly the power went off, yet a little glow of light glows from her slightly opened room door. Does she dare go closer than she already is? Well, if it helps to find the person who killed her father then it would be a very good idea. She starts creeping closer, the light only getting brighter. She reached out to open the door and was shocked at what she saw.

Buddy lay twisted beyond recognition. Jill began to run, to hide, to go anywhere away from this nightmare. But his foot caught on something, not hard but soft, almost like flesh and bone.

Chapter 4 by Rahul Arun

*What will Jill do after the murder of her father?*

It was her father's dismembered arm she had slipped on. She fell onto the floor, with a dull thud. She blacked out.

She was startled awake, as cold water came in contact with her face. A lot of blood flowed to her head. She felt all dizzy. It was all for good reason, she realized. She was hanging upside down, her legs together and attached to the beam of a dimly lit room. Her hands were bound as well. She managed to regain some of her senses, and had a look around. She hung upside down in her own basement!

She heard footsteps ahead. Someone was coming down the stairs into the basement. Jill screamed with all her might. Maybe it was someone who could help her, she thought. But alas, it was Hailey, with the same grin she had as she had before. "I promised myself I was going to kill each and every one in your family. And you're the only one left..", she said as she inched closer to Jill.

Chapter 5 by mya

"Why are you doing this Haley!", Jill screamed. " I know you probably have no clue about this, but long story short a long time ago some of your jerk family members did something terrible to my family members for no reason at all and ever since my family has been trying to get back at your family.", said Haley looking disgusted. Jill was shocked. Haley must have noticed because she said " you shouldn't be shocked. You always whine about how bad your family is. I don't blame you. But it always had been annoying, you know listening to you complain about your life problems. That's one of the reasons I don't like you. You complain too much."
